Children

Always

The story follows a little boy who, after a traumatic event, is worried that his mother will always be there. The mother's soothing words help to comfort the little boy back to sleep.

Adults

A Collection of Poems

I hate writing poetry – dread it, actually. And then, all of the sudden, while on a train to New York City, something magical happened: I wrote a poem for a dear friend's wedding. It just came to me, and I started typing. I loved it instantly, and, when I eventually gave it to her she did too.
